

Collectively, Andrew and David Cronje have in excess of 30 years' short-term insurance experience. The majority of which has been gained in the southern Cape market.

Andrew and David merged their short-term insurance brokerage with Outeniqua Garrun in 2010 when the new Cronje Garrun/Outeniqua Garrun was formed. They have since acquired another two brokerages namely, Telfin Services and Dirk Postma Insurance Consultants.

Andrew and David are both active members of the George community. They are young and ambitious which makes them a truly formidable team. Their goal is to be the largest and leading short-term insurance brokerage in the southern Cape region.
